

Contextual Labeling - Product Proposal

Vigilant Lens | ESGRC + Apex | 12 July 2026

1. Where this came from (Venkatesh's demo feedback)

"Present the product in context of environment rather than as metrics groups and sub-modules. Where it is ABC10000 or ABC_001 it should be Wastewater Treatment, or Environment / Social / Governance / Risk & Compliance. This helps the user with contextual flow rather than the technical jargon we use for product development."

In one line: users should see business language, not internal codes.

2. The problem today (BEFORE)

The product currently surfaces internal technical codes in the interface and in the AI recommendations:

Where	User currently sees	Should see
Dashboard metric	ESU10102	Emissions Compliance Rate
Sub-module heading	GRC10000	Governance, Risk & Compliance
Apex module	ESRC_001	ESGRC Module
Claude recommendation	"ESU10102 scored 72/100"	"Emissions Compliance Rate is below target"

This reads as engineering jargon, not a compliance product.

3. The solution: a Contextual Labeling Layer

Key point for Praveen: the friendly names already exist in our backend config - the performance JSON and the Apex module mapping. We are not creating new data; we are surfacing names that are already there and demoting the codes to a tooltip/subtitle.

- 14 sub-modules, 41 groups, 84 metrics in ESGRC - every one already has a contextual name.
- 12 enterprise modules in Apex - every one already has a contextual name.
- Effort = presentation layer only (low). No re-modelling, no waiting on new data.

Applied in three places:

- 1. UI - dashboard, pipeline steps, reports lead with the name; code shown small/on hover.
- 2. AI recommendations - feed names into Claude so recommendations speak in business terms (extends the existing work in commit e6c25d7, "carry names not raw IDs").
- 3. Top-level framing - group everything under the domains Venkatesh named:
Environmental | Social | Governance | Risk | Compliance.

4. Timeline fit

Praveen's real client data + Venkatesh's templates are ~1-2 months out. The labeling layer can be built now against the existing structure, so the product is ready to speak the client's language the moment that data lands.
